

The Tithe Farm Way:

Resilient pupils who have a life-long love of learning and are ready, respectful and safe in their choices.

Our Learning Journey: Creating a better world

Year 3 – Medicine and Disease.
Channels and their impact on the Local Area

- 1 What is bacteria?
Discuss different types of bacteria and explain what bacteria is for my exit ticket.
- 2 What is medicine and disease?
Explain what medicine and disease is in my own words.
- 3 What were the medical practices of the Tudor period?
Write down the different types of folk cures used during the Tudor period.
- 4 What is medicine like in the 20th and 21st century?
Compare medicine of today with the ideas and practices from the past centuries.
- 5 What information can you recall about the history of disease and medicine?
Write an account of the different types of medicine from all the time periods.
- 6 Who is Florence Nightingale?
Explain who Florence Nightingale was and why she was important to medicine.
- 7 What are channels?
Explain what channels are in your own words
- 8 Where are the channels in our local area?
Identify different channels in their local area.
- 9 What are the impacts on the channels in our local area?
Explain how channels impact the local area
- 10 How can I show my learning about channels and their impact on the local areas?
Design and create a double page spread demonstrating my learning about channels.