

Access to Free Digital Books for Remote Learning

We are actively searching for access to free digital books and will keep you updated with any we find. Please see the lists of recommended books on the website – these lists will be added to regularly. Not all recommended books will be available on all systems. Please work through the OXFORD OWL books first and always choosing at the correct ZPD level which the children are used to doing in school.

OXFORD OWL – full details are available on the website.

AMAZON - if you have an AMAZON account you can access free downloadable books via the KINDLE app on any device not just a KINDLE. Each type of AMAZON account offers different access to the free books so your availability will depend on your AMAZON account. Adult supervision will be required when choosing books if they are not on our recommended book lists.

RB digital is free and being added to regularly. This is available with a library membership from the Central Bedfordshire Library Website. Adult supervision will be required when choosing books if they are not on our recommended book list.
