

Knowledge Organiser – How the World has Changed

Year 1 Toys

WHAT I SHOULD ALREADY KNOW

Toys are objects that are made for children to play with. I can name a variety of materials.

WHAT I WILL KNOW BY THE END OF THE TOPIC

- Children have played with toys, even thousands of years ago.
- In Victorian times, girls played with dolls and tea sets. Boys played with toy soldiers and marbles.
- Children have played with toys, even thousands of years ago.
- Poorer children made their own toys, such as clothes-peg dolls or hopscotch.
- In modern times, toys are made in factories and often need batteries to work.

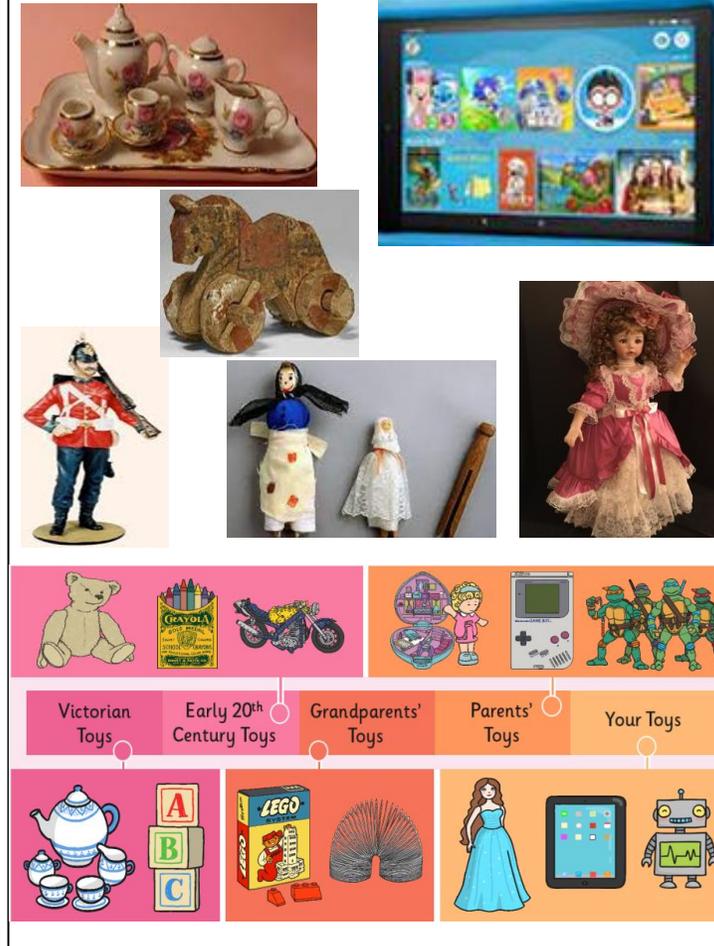

Culture and pastimes

What is a toy?

A toy is an object that is made for a child to play with. Your favourite toy might be a soft toy, a scooter or a tablet. The material used to make a toy has changed over time.

DIAGRAMS

KEY VOCABULARY

Key Word	Definition
artefact	A man-made object which has historical interest
museum	A building that holds historical objects
timeline	Used to show the order in which things happened
Living memory	Events that can be remembered by people who are still alive
toy	An object that is made for a child to play with.
modern	To do with the present or recent time.
play	An activity that you do for fun - either using toys or just your imagination.
hopscotch	A game which each child takes turns to hop into and over squares marked on the ground to retrieve a marker thrown into one square.

Related previous learning: Naming material, Victoria inventions

Future Learning: Victorian Life